Newtown's Archie On Anzac Est 1939 - renovated character home. If the walls could talk. Established in 1939 "Archibald" holds many stories of life gone by. Beautifully renovated character home in the heart of Newtown. From the front gate to the rear access in the back street this home has been fully transformed to sit proudly on a 1012m2 block of prime land within walking distances to the CBD private and state schools, shopping centres, cafes, parks and conveniences.

Keeping in with the traditions of the home from the entry you will enjoy the leadlight windows in the front sunroom which could make a great home office or set up your own professional home office, separated from the family home. The property has been delightfully renovated with soft neutral contemporary colour pallet to accent the polished floors through-out the home. Archie On Anzac has formal
